THE NEW JERUSALEM

G. K. Chesterton

The age-long problem of the East and the West, of Christian and Jew, of Mahomet and Christ, discussed with true Chestertonian brilliance. No one, whether he be Christian or Jew, can read these extraordinarily rich pages without realizing the unique place which Jerusalem holds today in our new world-plan.

RUSSIA IN THE SHADOWS

H. G. Wells

The first thoroughly reliable account of what is really happening in Bolshevik Russia. What is this mysterious Bolshevism? Should we help or oppose it? Whether you agree with Wells or not, the clarity of his picture and terse dramatic expression of his convictions will be of tremendous interest. "The most detailed report that has yet come from that unhappy country."—New York Evening Post.

THE CRISIS OF THE NAVAL WAR

Admiral Viscount Jellicoe
of Scapa

Admiral Jellicoe here carries on the story of the British Navy in the world war as begun in his volume, THE GRAND FLEET. This new volume is written, as Rear Admiral Fiske recently said, with "a transparent clearness and honesty of statement that makes one read it trustingly."

Illustrated with Maps and Diagrams.

IMMIGRATION AND THE FUTURE

Frances Kellor

A consideration of the pressing problem of immigration from the point of view of our industrial needs and capacities, together with a clear statement of immigration's relationship to present living costs.

NERVES AND THE MAN

Charles Loosmore, M.A.

Are you nervous? Here is a sane and wholesome discussion of the more common forms of nervous disorder, with practical suggestions to aid the sufferer.

THIS WORLD OF OURS

J. H. Curle

By the author of THE SHADOW SHOW, who has made the whole world his playground and has explored every nook and corner of it for a lifetime. If one could have but one book of travel, the choice might well fall on THIS WORLD OF OURS.

THE LIFE BEYOND THE VEIL

G. Vale Owen

Book I. The Lowlands of Heaven. Book II. The Highlands of Heaven. Clear, detailed and intelligible descriptions of the life led by those who have passed beyond the veil. In two volumes, sold separately. Introduction by A. Conan Doyle.

MARGOT ASQUITH: AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

The greatly-heralded, eagerly-awaited autobiography of Margot Asquith which much more than sustains its promise of international interest, sensation and lively gossip. Never were memoirs more wholly uninfluenced by fear, more true to the character of their author. Illustrated with many portraits and sketches. Two Volumes. Boxed. Octavo.
